

Basic Weatherization
 Training

- Introduction to home energy conservation
- Insulation energy savings & installation
- Window & door weather stripping
- Other energy savings measures to reduce utility costs
- Safety practices

Duct & Shell Sealing
 Training

- Air conditioning & heating duct system leakage testing
- Title 24 standards
- Blower door/air filtration analysis
- Safety practices and carbon monoxide testing of appliances
- Setting up & operating duct blaster and blower door equipment

CASIF
 Training

- Safety practices and carbon monoxide testing of appliances on combustible appliances
- Properly filling out the CASIF form
- Lab exercises

CAPSBC's Weatherization Training facility accommodates students who can travel by auto and return home without requiring an overnight stay. There are several contractors and subcontractors, who can benefit from these trainings.

To sign up for a training contact:
 Nydia Roque (909) 723-1608, email nroqu@capsbc.sbcounty.gov
 Or Rita Acueto-Colton (909) 723-1624, email rcolton@capsbc.sbcounty.gov